Some dozen lots were sold at Apex Tuesday, bringing fair prices.

Desirable land for sale in Warren county. See notice in another column.

Messrs. W. C & A. B. Stronach have on hand almost everything good to eat. See their notices.

The Raleigh National Bank has declared a dividend for the last six months, payable next Monday.

Mr. B. W. Green will sell on the 23d of January 92 acres of land located just outside of Raleigh. See notice.

The offices, located between the NEWS office and the Yarborough building, are for rent. See notice elsewhere.

Haverley's Minstrels will be in this city on the first of February, and Katie Putnam will be here about the 28th of January.

The new Briggs' building, on Fayetteville street, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be the largest building in the city.

The western mail now reaches here at 8:45 a. m., and as a consequence the morning mail is not opened until about 9:30 o'clock.

There will be an important meeting of Raleigh Grange on Saturday next. The installation of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

"Ring out the old, ring in the new," to-night, and bid 1874 adieu—like all other departed things, we have no farther use for it, and will not sing its joys.

Mr. J. T. Farmer, of Greensboro, yesterday captured one of the fair daughters of Wake, marrying Miss Anna Kuester. We wish the couple a life of pleasure.

There was a slight improvement in the cotton trade yesterday, and as soon as the holidays are fully over with we may expect a revival of the trade in this staple.

Mr. David Blake, of Oak Grove Township, was accidentally shot in the leg a few days since by the discharge of a pistol in his pocket, inflicting a painful wound.

Governor Brogden is still absent from the city. We wonder if this sing(le)ular individual is endeavoring to find some one to share with him the honors of his old age?

A paper says that it is absurb to talk about the extravagance of the American people, when a man worked all day to clean a three cent postage stamp so he could use it again.

The 72nd session of the Lovejoy School, in this city, will be resumed on the 20th of January. It is now solely under the management of Mr. J. M. Lovejoy and his son. See the notice in another column.

"Our Woodson" is spending a few days in Newbern. He will visit several portions of the State before the reassembling of the Legislature. We need not bespeak him a kind reception at the hands of the people he visits.

Work on the Government Postoffice building has been suspended for some ten days past, awaiting, we presume, the advent of the new year. We wonder if the pay of the officials in connection therewith is discontinued with the suspension of the laborers?

Henry Miller, Esq., of this city, has just returned from Albany, N. Y., whither he has been to convey J. S. Sessoms, recently sentenced by the Federal Court to three years imprisonment in the Penitentiary for defrauding the Goyernment by forged receipts.

An exchange gets off the following on delinquent subscribers: "Looking over an old ledger we see a long array of names of former subscribers who are indebted to us. Some of them have moved away and are lost to sight, although to memory dear. Others are carrying the contribution boxes in our most respectable churches, and others again are angels in heaven, but they owe us just the same."

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—On the first day of January, under the new postal laws, we will be compelled to prepay postage upon all papers sent from our office. It will therefore be impossible for us to send any paper that is not paid for in advance. Bills and notices are now being sent to all names upon our books whose time will expire on or by the first of January, and we give this notice in order that all parties may know that if their subscriptions are not renewed by that time we will discontinue the same on that day.

Manager of the NEWS.

POSTPONEMENT OF THE MEETING OF THE STATE GRANGE.—The following circular from the Secretary of the State Grange announces a postponement of the annual meeting of this body from the 17th of January until the 3d of March, at which time it will meet in this city. The circular will appear officially in the State Agricultural Journal, which will appear again on the 9th of January:

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Fayetteville, N. C., Jan. 1, 1875.
SPECIAL CIRCULAR.]

It is hereby announced, by order of the Executive Committee, that the second annual session of the State Grange is postponed for two weeks, and that said meeting will be held on Wednesday, 3rd March, 1875, in the city of Raleigh at 11 o'clock, a. m. on that day.

This postponement is made in consequence of the meeting of the National Grange (at Charleston, S. C., on February 3d) conflicting with the time heretofore set apart for the meeting of the State Grange there not being sufficient time allowed between the probable adjournment of the National Grange, and the meeting of the State Grange for the Master and other officers who may attend the session of the National Grange to return home and prepare such business for the action of the State Grange as may necessarily arise from the legislation of the National Grange.

Representatives elect from the several counties will please forward without delay their names and the name and number of the sub Grange with which they affiliate, to the Secretary of the State Grange, so that he may be able to prepare and have printed a full and correct list for the use of said meeting.
G. W. LAWRENCE, Sec'y.

AFFAIRS IN CARY.—A correspondent writing us from our neighboring town of Cary, located at the junction of the Chatham and N. C. Railroad, says:

Editors News:—Perhaps a few items from this growing village, so near the capital of the State, would be worthy of a place in your flourishing paper. The beautiful cotton factory, the sash factory, the large saw mill, the Cary Female Seminary, and the neat and beautiful residences do not fail to attract the eye of many passengers who pass this way. But the citizens of Raleigh will never know what kind people reside here, unless they come out and share the kind hospitalities of these noble hearted people. This is the second time I have spent a day in Carey and I like the place better and better.

The people are doing well. The factories are doing well, the Cary Female Seminary is doing well, and why? Not a single grog shop in Cary. D.

DEDICATION OF THE CHARLOTTE MASONIC LODGE.—Deputy Grand Master John Nichols and Grand Treasurer Bain returned yesterday morning from Charlotte, at which place they assisted Monday in dedicating the new Masonic Lodge on Tryon street. The affair was a most pleasant one, and in the afternoon a banquet was served which did credit to the Masonic fraternity in that city. We understand the new hall is the largest in the State and is probably the most handsome with the exception of the hall in Newbern; it was built expressly for the purposes of the Masonic fraternity of Charlotte, being the fourth story of a new store building.

A DAMNABLE NUISANCE.—The miserable gambling, in the shape of a lottery or something of that character, that is allowed on Wilmington street, under a license from the city, is a most miserable nuisance, a reproach to the city, and a thorough swindle recognized by the powers that be. It is patronized in open day by crowds of negro men and boys, and is altogether the most damnable nuisance we have ever seen in the city. Unless the authorities stop this open gambling in the city, the people should hold them responsible.

MESSRS. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.—By reference to their advertisement it will be seen that these popular gentlemen have determined to resume business under the firm-name, so well known in ante bellum days, of W. H. & R. S. Tucker, at the old stand of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. The stock belonging to the latter firm has been closed out, and the new firm enters upon the new year with a full, fresh stock of new and fashionable goods, which they promise to sell at bottom prices. Give them a call.

THE RALEIGH CLUB.—This club has recently moved its rooms into the third story of the Gulley building, just South of the market square, where it has a hall superior to its former quarters. The club recently elected officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

President, Dr. R. B. Haywood; Vice-President, John C. Blake, Esq.; Secretary, Col. Wm. E. Anderson; Treasurer, Johnston Busbee, Esq. We are pleased to know that this club is still in a flourishing condition.

THE COMING IN OF THE NEW YEAR.—We propose setting up to-night (our usual custom) until 12 o'clock, to try on the new year. We would like to have as many of our friends join us in this effort as may so feel disposed. There is no eggnogg or hot toddies in question.

"THE DAY WE DON'T CELEBRATE."—We hear of no preparations on the part of the African citizens of this city to celebrate to-morrow, the anniversary of their emancipation. We wonder if they are becoming less thankful for their liberation, or has the novelty of the thing worn off?

LOCATORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION OF RALEIGH IN SESSION AT GOLDSBORO.

GOLDSBORO, Dec. 30, 1874.

We left Raleigh this morning at 8:47 o'clock and arrived in this flourishing town in time to enjoy an elegant breakfast at the Merchants' Club Room, presided over by that prince of caterers, Wm. Bonitz, who is ever ready and always on hand with an unsurpassable bill of fare.

On the train we met quite a number of distinguished clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, en route to Goldsboro to attend the regular "Convocation of Raleigh," which holds its session this year in that young city. It is with sincere regret that we are compelled to publish to the world that we are totally ignorant as to what the "Convocation of Raleigh" is, or what its purposes are, but we propose to report its proceedings in full, and before its close we hope to know more of what we are now writing about.

The officers of the Convocation are: Rev. E. R. Rich, of Raleigh, President; Rev. R. B. Sutton, of Pittsboro, D. D., Dean; Rev. J. W. Larmour, Secretary.

Rev. A. Smedes, D. D., of Raleigh, preached the introductory sermon to-day.

The following are the members of the Convocation that are present: Rev. R. B. Sutton, D. D., Rev. A. Smedes, D. D., Revs. M. M. Marshall, E. R. Rich, C. Curtis, J. W. Larmour, W. H. Vaughan, C. Huske, A. Smith and G. Phelps.

We learn that the principal object of the Convocation this session is to strengthen the religious life in the people, the mutual improvement of the clergy and to exert a missionary spirit among all classes.

As we are billed for Newbern and must necessarily be in readiness for the train at 2 o'clock, we are unable to give a report of to-day's proceedings, but our special reporter is on hand taking full notes and will report to-morrow.

'Tis said that Goldsboro misbehaved herself on Christmas. Horn blowing and cannon fire-crackers were inconsiderable trifles compared to the firing of loaded guns and pistols on the streets. We have seen several bullet holes through buildings, signs, etc., that were fired in open day light, and yet the police report says, "no arrests" on Christmas.

The weather here is delightful, equal to the fairest morning in May. Lilacs are blooming in the gardens and fresh strawberries are served at the Humphrey House.

We leave in a few minutes for the Elm City, vulgarly termed by carpetbaggers "Nubbern," but known by the tar-heels as Newbern, (no e at the end), the Athens of North Carolina. If we find any important items at the "Athens," we will write by next mail. W.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR AT THE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.—At the concert given by the scholars at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum to the members of the Legislature just prior to adjournment a subscription was raised to give the dumb and blind a Christmas supper, and last night this entertainment was had for their benefit. We attended, and greatly enjoyed witnessing their sports, the dancing of the dumb and the "round and round" games of the blind. A friend at our elbow seemed surprised at the dumb dancing without music, and suggested to Mr. Nichols the omission. We thought like him that music would be an improvement. Could the contributors have seen the manner in which the unfortunates enjoyed the good eatables that had been prepared for them by Superintendent Nichols and Dr. R. B. Ellis, the Steward, and their assistants, they would have felt themselves richly repaid.

THE HOLLEMAN HALL.—The third story of the new Holleman building, being constructed on Fayetteville street, is to be arranged for the purposes of a hall, and will be the largest in the city. It will be 91 by 40 feet in dimensions, with a pitch of some 14 feet. It is most probable that it will be used by the Masonic fraternity. The building will contain two elegant store rooms on the first floor and will cost Mr. Holleman some $30,000.

A PROPOSED NEW YEAR'S RACE.—We learn that it is proposed, as a New Year's frolic, that two of the most aged citizens of Raleigh have a foot race, between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning, from the Capitol down Fayetteville street to the Governor's Mansion, for a purse of $100. The ringing of the town bell will announce the commencement of the sport.

THE WILDMAN TROUPE TO-NIGHT.—This Company will make its appearance at Tucker Hall to-night. The press generally speak of it in exceedingly complimentary terms, and our citizens will remember their visit here last winter when they gave general satisfaction. We bespeak for them good houses.

ROOMS OF THE CENT'L EX. COM.
OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY,
Dec. 16th, '74.

The State Executive Committee of the Conservative party—which is composed of the various Congressional Executive Committees—will please meet in Raleigh on Wednesday, January 20th, 1875, to consult in regard to important matters.

Members of the Conservative press are invited to attend.
W. R. COX,
Chairman of Central Com.
J. J. LITCHFORD,
Secretary.

It isn't always safe for printers to abbreviate important words. The following is a case in point: The books of a Sunday School library connected with the Baptist church in Damariscotta are embelished with labels, bearing the following legend: "Number —, Dam'a Baptist Sunday School."

It is said that T. T. Broocks, of Petersburg, Va., convicted of embezzling Government funds while President of a National Bank in Petersburg, is at present employed as clerk in the infirmary of the Albany Penitentiary.

NEW YEAR'S BELLS.

Ring, bells, ring, with your mellow din,
Ring the old year out and the new year in!
Like the voices of birds from the old gray spire,
Let your silvery music rise higher and higher;
Floating abroad o'er the hillside bare
In billows of sound on the tremulous air,
Let it rise and fall with the fitful gale;
Tell over city and wood the tale;
Say that to-night the old year dies!
Bid the watchers look to the eastern skies,
For the beautiful halo that tells afar,
Of the welcome rise of the new year's star!

Ring the old year out, with its sighs and tears,
Its withering heart-aches and tiresome tears;
Away with its memories of doubt and wrong,
Its cold deceits and its entvings strong.
All its pangerings lures to the faltering sense,
All its pitiful shams and cold pretense,
We will heap them together and bind them fast
To the old man's load as he totters past,
The ills that he brought he may take again;
Keep we the joys, let him bury the pain!
Ring soft, oh bells, as he goe to rest
Far in the shades of the darkening west!

Ring, bells, ring, with a merry din!
The old year has gone with its care and sin!
Smiling and fair, at the eastern gates,
Clad in tinted light, the new year waits!
Welcome him in with the rosy band,
Who wait the wave of his beckoning hand;
Hope, with her wreaths of sweet spring flowers—
Joy for the summer's glowing hours,
Plenty and peace for the fruitful fall,
And love for all seasons—best of all.
Ring merrily, bells!—o'er the blushing skies,
See the beautiful star of the new year rise!

[From the Aldine for December.

The latest American tourist in Europe took a notion to buy a sealskin cloak for his wife. On nearing New York it occurred to him that it would be a fine piece of economy to avoid paying the duties on it. Accordingly he asked a female acquaintance on board to put it on and wear it ashore as her own. She was only too happy to accommodate. She wore it ashore accordingly, bnt she omitted to meet the gentleman afterwards, and so the wife of a prominent manufacturer of Springfield will have to go without her sealskin this winter. It is sad—very.

TO THE PUBLIC.
HAVING SOLD OUT THE ENTIRE STOCK OF GOODS, belonging to W. H. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. We propose
Continuing the Business, at our present store under the old firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker, (which has never been dissolved) with an entire New Stock.
The partners of the Firm are W. H. H. Tucker, and R. S. Tucker, of Raleigh, N. C.
The continuation of the DRY GOODS BUSINESS
by us, is contrary to our determinations, anticipations or desires. But the difficulty in renting out our store to persons who could furnish the means for conducting the business as it should be, together with the pressure brought to bear on us to continue in Raleigh this FIRST-CLASS STORE, by a very large number of our friends, both Ladies and Gentlemen, have compelled us to surrender our desire to retire, and today we announce, that on and after January 1st, 1875, we will offer to the public the advantages of this First-Class
DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.
We return our sincere thanks to a generous public for the very large patronage extended our Firms, through a period of a half century.
We shall bring to bear in our profession whatever wisdom we have gained by experience, The advantages in our purchases which capital commands, and that courtesy and urbanity due to a refined and generous custom.
We shall undertake to offer greater inducements than ever to cash buyers. Our plan for conducting business will be for "CASH."
We shall buy every dollar of our Goods for cash and will sell for "Cash only." By this plan, we can buy cheaper and can sell Cheaper.
By this plan we will not over buy nor will customers buy more than they can pay for. By this plan cash customers do not pay the high prices which the credit system requires. We shall buy the "Best Goods" and sell at the lowest prices."
Remember then that you can get almost anything at Tucker's and of the best quality and lowest prices.

THE STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

We are requested to call the attention of the members of the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party to the call for a meeting of the Committee in this city, on Wednesday, the 20th day of January next. The State Committee is composed of the Executive Committees of the several Congressional Districts; and the interests of the party imperatively demand the attendance of every member who can possibly be present. Matters of vital importance will come up for consideration.

We are requested further to say that the members of the Conservative press of the State are cordially and earnestly invited to be present, to assist the State Committee in its deliberations.

Let us have a full meeting and a frank, free conversation as to what is best to be done to give permanency to the triumph of August last.

IN a brief editorial notice yesterday morning of the able letter favoring Convention, written by Mr. MONTFORD MCGEHEE, of Person, we inadvertently spelt his name wrong.

THE Washington Echo and Kinston Gazette, two valuable State exchanges, have within the last week declared for Convention. We are satisfied that the question needs only to be agitated and discussed to gain rapidly the favor of the people. The inconveniences and excessive cost of administering the State government, in its several departments, is, of itself, a sufficient argument in favor of the change. Let the people be shown the need, and they will promptly respond to the proposition for amendment by the speediest, most efficient and economical method—and that method is by Convention.

THE Wilmington Journal is severely criticising the recent letter of Judge DICK, of the Federal Court for the Western North Carolina District, to Attorney General WILLIAMS, concerning matters relating to the administration of justice in the district.

It seems that the Attorney General had complained of the expenditures of the District. In reply Judge DICK states that the sum expended is necessary to the punishment of criminals and the prevention of crime; and then, in obedience to the commands of his chief, he offers to reduce the expenditures by confining them to such specific sum as the Attorney General may fix, even though he shall be compelled to allow guilty parties to go unpunished. What a mockery of a court of law and justice must that become, whose conduct is regulated not by the demands of justice, but by the suggestions of an official, whose complaint is that the cost of the court is excessive and must be reduced! An upright, independent judge should do his duty, regardless of the threats, or wishes, of any man, or set of men; but Judge DICK yields and promises obedience to the wishes of the Attorney General!

China and Japan have for some time had a dispute concerning the Island of Formosa. Those who were curious to know with what effect these two nations could use the modern weapons civilization has sold to them to slaughter each other with, will be disappointed. Peace has been declared.

NEW YORK SENATORSHIP.

The New York Herald of the 28th, contains a series of conversations had with members of the next General Assembly of that State concerning the Senatorship. A vacancy will be made in the New York representation, in the next Congress, by the expiration of the term of service of Senator FENTON. The names most prominently mentioned in connection with the position are those of Ex-Gov. SEYMOUR, Judge CHURCH Mr. KERNAN, and the Hon. THOS. C. MURPHY and latterly that of Mr. CHARLES O'CONOR. GOV. SEYMOUR has again and again declined to become a candidate; and the race, according to the Herald, will probably be between Messrs. KERNAN and O'CONOR.

Mr. O'CONOR is too well known to the country to need to be spoken of at length. Mr. KERNAN was the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1872, but was defeated by Gov. DIX. He is a lawyer of great abilities and a gentleman without reproach. In religion he is a Catholic. Either of these gentlemen would be a valuable addition to the Democratic strength in the Senate.

THE BYERLY HOMICIDE.

The particulars of the recent affair between Ex-GOV. WARMMOUTH, of Louisiana, and Mr. DAN. C. BYERLY, of the New Orleans Bulletin, come in slowly, and the sad result will be deeply deplored by the thousands, who have learned to admire Mr. BYERLY, for the pluck, energy and ability by which, despite apparently insurmountable obstacles, he advanced his paper to the very front rank in Southern journalism. Begun only a few months ago as an experiment, the Bulletin had gained so rapidly in public favor as to have come to be considered an "institution" of the city of its publication. In all the conflicts, between the people and the horde of scoundrels led by KELLOGG, PACKARD and CASEY, it has unflinchingly asserted and defended the right of the people of Louisiana to free government.

Mr. BYERLY was a Pennsylvanian by birth. He came South about thirty years ago and immediately identified himself with the people with whom his lot was cast. He located in New Orleans and remained there until the outbreak of hostilities, in 1861. Promptly espousing the cause of the people of his adoption, he entered the Southern army and did faithful service until the close of the struggle. He was several times wounded and was finally disabled for duty by the loss of his right arm. After the war he was elected to a lucrative office at his home, from which he was ejected by reconstruction. He then established the Bulletin, which grew under his fostering care, into favor and commanding influence.

His unfortunate death is greatly lamented by the people whom he has gallantly and faithfully served. We will give full particulars of the unfortunate affray as soon as the facts are developed by the Coroner's inquest.

GERRIT SMITH.

SUMNER and GREELEY and CHASE and SEWARD have passed from among men, and gone to answer for the deeds done in the body; and now their friend and associate in the great crusade against slavery is added to the number. GERRIT SMITH, than whom slavery had no more bitter and relentless opponent, was stricken with paralysis while on a visit to New York city, a few days since, and died at the residence of the neice whom he was visiting.

In many respects Mr. SMITH was one of the most remarkable men connected with that great conflict. Many of those prominent in the struggle, there is good cause for supposing, were so connected from interested motives. They saw in the strong passions, aroused by the struggle, opportunities for political preferment more readily available than those presented by the ordinary phases of politics. They had only to catch the tide at the flood to be borne by it into places of profit and power; and with wise prevision they seized the opportunity and took the benefit. Their conduct was not so much the result of love for liberty in its largest sense and sympathy with the persons held in bondage in the South, as the product of the observation of the politician, who saw in the deep feeling begotten of the controversy the means whereby masses of men might be controlled for the accomplishment of their purposes. Abstractedly they cared little or nothing for the negro; but the agitation in his behalf was a method of reaching the popular heart and utilizing the popular will for personal aggrandizement.

For these things Mr. SMITH cared little. He can scarcely be said to have been in public life; for although elected to Congress from the Oswego district, of New York, in 1852, he withdrew from the body after serving for a single Winter. Nor did he reap pecuniary reward from his zeal and labors in the anti-slavery cause. On the contrary he gave largely, liberally of his private means for the advancement of the cause which had aroused his sympathies and enlisted his efforts. Born to the possession of vast means, he freely expended them in forwarding the great object of his life.

In these respects his character is conspicuously differentiated from those of many of his companions in that prolonged crusade. He was an enthusiast, but his enthusiasm was free from cant and hypocrisy. He felt deeply and earnestly and his conduct was, as is natural to the products of such traits, always earnest and aggressive. He was one of the purest, best men among the Abolition host; and, whatever we may think of the object to which the labors of his life were consecrated, we cannot deny that, in his soul, he believed the objects he sought to accomplish to be just, right and beneficial to his age and country.

General Garibaldi has been paraded in the newspapers as poor and proud—an island Balisarius—a reproach to Italy. We see that he has been placed in comfortable circumstances pecuniarily; but it must be very uncomfortable to him otherwise, if he is to read many such reports as the one just made to the French Assembly. During the Franco-Prussian war Garibaldi was given a command in the Eastern Department. What a deplorable failure he made of it will be seen. The report charges that he did not even essay to dispute with the Prussians "for a day or even an hour" the passage of the mountains to the north of Dijon. He was minutely informed of the movements of the enemy, although Riccioli Garibaldi deserted his post of observation and fled to the shelter of the nearest city. It was proved that Garibaldi had sufficient force to retard the march of the Prussians. "If a French General had acted such a part he would have been court-martialed," says emphatically the report. Garibaldi, in fact, proved himself what part of the world has long suspected him of being—a sham and a fraud.

Come on, with that biographical sketch of Van Brunt. Everbody wants to know something about the gentlemanly and accurate marksman who quieted the Charley Ross burglars.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The simple annals of his life are easily told. He was born young, it is said, and grew up gradually. He never held the stroke oar at a college regatta; never lectured; never became a charity commissioner; never walked five hundred miles in six days; never was a book canvasser or a life insurance agent; never took any stock in Katie King; never believed that Charley Ross went West to grow up with the country; never wrote a poem entitled "The Beautiful Snow;" and never believed that a passport from Henry Wilson would gain a soul admission into Heaven. At the had of such a man it must be a privilege to die.—Brorklyn Argus.

At a recent meeting in Charleston, S. C., a letter was read from a Northern manufacturer, from which the annexed extract is taken: "While I have only met expenses in the North in running twenty frames (3,000 spindles,) the return I have from my sixteen frames of the same machinery, in the South, for the last six months, have been $15,000 clear profit. Our company has decided to sell out our machinery North. The South enjoys an advantage of no less than twenty per cent. over the Northern manufacturers."

"Our royal guest" is still being feted and feasted, wined, dined and theatred. He has had no opportunity to complain of want of social equality. If we could make all Southern blacks kings for a season, we might allow the Civil Rights bill to quietly drop into limbo. But there is a vast difference between a colored King—his Majesty—and a simple "culled pusson." It has been at the North, "Off with your hat" with the one—"Up with your boot" with the other.—Balto. Gazette.

It is announced from Berlin that Prince George of Prussia is engaged in writing a drama, the subject of which is taken from the Old Testament, and that with a view of better preparing himself for the careful working out of the plan, he has called in the aid of a distinguished Semitic scholar to direct him in regard to the correct exposition of the accessories of the piece.

Mr. James Webb, one of Baltimore's most enterprising citizens, died suddenly Monday. He was a Director in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and President of the Old Town Savings Bank. He had been ill but a few days, and his sudden death will be lamented by all who knew him.

The saintly Glendenning is in the pulpit again, and preached the first sermon since his arrest on Christmas day; but the body of poor Mary Pomeroy lies mouldering in the ground.

Mr. M. A. Little has sold his chesnut colt Fellowcraft to Col. Richard Penistan, of Fayette county, Ky. The colt made four miles in 7:19½ in Saratoga last summer.

The Philadelphia detectives who arrived at Ithaca, N. Y., on Saturday evening, declare that the boy who was thought to be Charlie Ross is not that individual.

The sponsors in baptism of a prominent citizen of Clark county, Kentucky, are responsible for having him Wright North South East West.

They begin early in Missouri. A four year old boy has just shot and killed his man, and a full grown one at that.

Some radical innovator on the Chicago Inter-Ocean is writing against Christmas presents. Put him out!

King Kalakaua is about to visit New Bedford, Massachusetts, the home of his great-grandfather.

Charles O'Conor says it is lawful to shoot a burglar whenever you can catch him "on the fly."

A gentleman took the following telegram to a telegraph office: "I announce with grief the death of Uncle James. Come quickly to read will. I believe we are the heirs. John Black." The clerk having counted the words, said: "There are two words too many, sir." "All right; cut out 'with grief.'"

Advisory Board.—John Nichols, Esq., Raleigh, W. F. Davis, Esq., Kittrells, A. A. Williams, Esq., Oxford, Maj. J. P. Jenkins, Nashville, J. H. Thorp, Esq., Rocky Mount, Dr. R. W. King, James W. Lancaster and James E. Clark, Esqs., Wilson.

While this enterprise is not conducted under the direct auspices of any Lodge, yet its object is to aid that noble institution, the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which was established by the Grand Lodge of the State, and the management is entirely in the hands of members of the Order.

The object is exclusively for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum and the Committee deem it unnecessary to make any extended appeal to the people of North Carolina in behalf of an institution which is so worthy of their support. The liberality of the ticket holders places it in the power of every one to aid a noble cause, and at the same time the chances of being rewarded are unusually favorable.

It is confidently believed that the enterprise will be a success, but if from any cause there should be no Concert and distribution, all the money received from ticket holders shall be returned to them without discount.

No tickets sold will be entitled to claim for the Gifts unless the money for the same has been received at this office.

The Gifts will be distributed immediately after the Concert.

Any person holding a ticket entitling the Gift who desires the Asylum to have the benefit of such Gift, will notify the Secretary by such endorsement on back of the ticket, and the same shall be appropriated as directed.

NEWSPAPERS.

THE SUN DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is known to the public. We shall not endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its priority and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will contain nothing to offend the most scrupulous or delicate taste. It will always contain the latest interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of honest men. It exposes the corruption and disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knave or fool, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fluctuations are regularly reported in its columns.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are unable to make any discount or allowance or premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. For the new year, which requires the payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, or twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added to the rate of subscription, it is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the WEEKLY SUN at this price. Any one who sends us one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, postpaid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postpaid. No discount from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Its circulation is over 120,000. All the news for 65 cents a month, or $7.80 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address, "THE SUN," dec 23-1t New York City.

THE DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY, ... DECEMBER 31, 1874.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wilmingtonians have been enjoying "Humpty Dumpty" this week, as performed by Fox's troupe.

At the Masonic dinner in Wilmington on Monday Major J. A. Engelhard responded to the toast: The Press—The mighty engine for the dissemination of thought. May it never be prostituted to base and ignoble purposes.

"Our Zeb," who is a Presbyterian in theory, says the only difference between him and his brother, General Vance, who is a Methodist, is, That 'Bob' believes in falling from grace, but never does fall," and he "Zeb") "Don't believe in falling from grace, but is always falling."

The Washington Echo and the Kinston Gazette have both declared for Convention. Says the Echo: "We have preferred that no action be taken at the present session; as it has turned out otherwise, we now favor the PROMPT CALLING OF A CONVENTION." Says the Gazette: "From this day forward let the watchword of every good man be, irrespective of party affiliation, 'Give us a Constitutional reform by a Convention of the people.'"

Wilmington has been treated with a colored female orator this week, "the talented Haytien orator, Madame Parque, of Gonaives, Hayti, the colored rival of Miss Anna E. Dickson." Her subject was "The Negro—Past, Present and Future." The St. Louis Democrat says of her: "She somewhat resembles Miss Anna E. Dickson, in the earnest vehemence of her manner, but has a more musical voice and is more of a natural orator."

Says the Newbern Journal of Commerce: A telegram from the Signal service observer at Cape Hatteras announces the arrival there on December 18, of Mr. H. N. Bishop, who has made the trip from Quebec, Canada, in his paper canoe, the Maria Theresa. The craft weighs only fifty-eight pounds, and has been since the 4th of July last making the voyage. Mr. Bishop left Hatteras Monday, and expects to reach his destination —Key West—about March 1, 1875.

The celebration of St. John's Day in Wilmington Monday night was the occasion of much pleasure to the participants. The Masons "processed" to Thalian Hall, where they listened to an admirable address from Col. Thos. S. Kenan, of Wilmington. Says the Journal, in allusion to the address: "Any words of ours would fail to give any idea of the address of Col. Kenan. It embraced in itself so much of history, so much of Masonry, so much of this pleasing reminiscence of bygone days linked with the historical record of the Cape Fear Region in connection with Masonry, and these all blended and made to shine with new light and interest gave to his discussion one of peculiar interest." In the afternoon a sumptuous dinner was participated in at Masonic Hall, and what with toasting and feasting, the occasion is represented to have been a most delightful one. Grand Master G. W. Blount was one of the participants in this grand affair.

The New Orleans Tragedy--Further Particulars.

NEW ORLEANS, December 27.—The difficulty between ex-Governor Warmoth and Dan. C. Byerly, manager of the Bulletin, grew out of a controversy between Warmoth and the Bulletin, which led to the publication on Friday by Warmoth of a card addressed to the manager of the Bulletin, reflecting upon that paper and Mr. Jewell, one of the editors. Warmoth has made the following statement about the difficulty to the agent of the Associated Press:

"Yesterday after my card appeared in the Picayune I was called upon by a friend of Jewell, who demanded of me an abject apology for the card, which I declined to make, whereupon he asked if I would accept a challenge to fight a duel, remarking at the same time that it was generally understood that I would not fight. I replied that I would not fight if I could as well avoid it; that I was no fighter, and that there would be time enough to answer the question about dueling when I was challenged. Late in the day the affair was confided to our respective friends; they met at eight o'clock in the evening and agreed that Jewell and myself should fight in Alabama on Monday morning, the weapons to be duelling pistols and the distance ten paces. These terms having been accepted I did not, of course, apprehend an attack, especially not from any one connected with the Bulletin. My understanding of such matters is that antagonists, at a pending meeting, should be courteous, and I was just on the eve of tipping my hat to Mr. Byerly, in front of whom two ladies were walking, the street being crowded, when he struck me with a heavy stick on the head, inflicting the wound you see." The Governor, taking off his hat, exhibited a cut about two inches long over the left temple, extending back from the forehead. "He struck me three times, when I clinched with him, in the meantime taking a knife out of my pocket and, with my arms around his shoulders, I got my hands together and opened it. Just then I felt Byerly falling on me. Soon after we fell a policeman took the knife out of my hands, and some of the crowd pulled Byerly off. I understand Byerly has been cut and I am accused of doing the cutting."

Warmoth was arrested immediately after the fight and conveyed to the third precinct station. He has since been transferred to the parish prison. Byerly received six wounds in the abdomen, one of which his physicians consider very dangerous, but not necessarily mortal. Shortly after being wounded Byerly was removed to the Orleans Infirmary, on Druphine street. The Bulletin publishes a statement of an eye witness of the Warmoth affair. The statement differs somewhat from that of Warmoth as to the cutting. This witness states that the knife was open when drawn, and that two or three stabs were made before they fell. Byerly's wounds were in the left side just over the hip, one of them being over four inches deep, and indicates the length of the knife blade. Byerly died at twenty minutes past ten o'clock, Saturday night. Byerly was aged forty-eight years, was a printer by trade, was a native of Pennsylvania, and came to New Orleans in 1845. He served gallantly in Shield's regiment of Louisiana volunteers in the West during the war, and was wounded four times in one of the fights around Atlanta. Some months ago Mr. Byerly, in company with others, commenced the publication of the New Orleans Bulletin.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is publishing able editorial articles in favor of the government lending aid to Southern enterprises for the restoration of this section.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Under the new postal law, which goes into effect on the first of January, 1875, we will be required to prepay the postage on the NEWS. This will add much to the expense of publication, but NO ADVANCE will be made in the subscription price on either our DAILY or WEEKLY. The price, as heretofore, will be:

DAILY:

One year,	(postage paid)	$7.00.
Six months,	"	3.50.
Three "	"	2.00.

WEEKLY:

One year,	(postage paid)	$2.00.
Six months,	"	1.00.

This will prove quite a reduction the price of the NEWS, as the postage now paid by subscribers is $1.20 upon the Daily, being virtually a reduction to that extent. This, with the recent enlargement of the NEWS, will make it the cheapest paper in the State.

Under the new system the cash plan will be rigidly enforced, as we cannot afford to send the paper on credit and pre-pay the postage, and all subscriptions not renewed by the first of January will be promptly discontinued. We hope every subscriber will promptly renew.

JORDAN STONE,
Manager.

A Send-off for a New Bishop.

The Mobile Register gets enthusiastic thus: "Rev. Thomas U. Dudley, of Virginia, recently of Baltimore, has been elected assistant bishop of Kentucky, to succeed Bishop Cummins, deposed. Ah, Tom, my boy, do you remember the 'Dedils' of the University of Virginia? What jolly times those were! Now you're a bishop! Harry Toulmon is a judge. Otey is out West dealing faro. Not long ago we picked up Patterson on the streets dead drunk and forwarded him to Missouri. Arnell, of Tennessee, turned radical, went to Congress and died. Warmoth made Kennard Supreme Court Judge of Louisiana. Thompson was killed leading an Arkansas regiment at Shiloh. All the rest of us who are not dead or forgotten are struggling to keep our noses above water. You alone are bishop, my dear Tom! From the newspaper offices of the Gulf, from the faro banks of the west, from judicial seats, from the studies of professors, and the pulpit of the ecclesiastics, we take off our hats and cheer for the new Kentucky bishop as the best souled fellow, brightest intellect, truest friend, and purest spirit old Virginia ever gave birth to."

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all billious attacks, prompt to start the secretions of the liver, and give a healthy tone to the entire system. Indeed, it is no ordinary discovery in medical science to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develop all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel, a mineral justly dreaded by mankind, and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system. That the prope ties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches; and those who use the Mandrake Pills will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common herbs and roots of the fields.

These pills open the bowels and correct all billious derangements without salivation or any of the injurious effects of calomel or other poisons. The secretion of bile is promoted by these pills, as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, and disappearing of the sallow complexion and cleaning of the tongue.

Ample directions for use accompany each box of pills.

Prepared only by J. H. Schenck & Son, at their principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, and for sale by all druggists and dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

TAILORING.

POLONIUS' ADVICE TO LAERTES:

"Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can Buy."

It will be remembered by Shakespearan readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laertes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a journey to France, wherein he said:

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich not gaudy —for the apparel oft proclaims the man," &c., &c.

Ministers from the pulpit have said that every young man should paste in his hat the remarks in full of Polonius.

WEIKEL, the Merchant Tailor

in endorsing all that has been said on the subject, would remark that he is better prepared than ever to supply to his numerous friends and customers "habits" just as those mentioned. "Rich, but not gaudy," and not so "costly" as you might suppose. His stock of

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Interesting Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Panama dates of the 20th inst. says that there is nothing new from the Isthmus.

Peruvian dates of the 6th inst. state that Pierola and his few adherents remain in the mountains, although an attempt has been unsuccessfully made to dislodge them, in which the Government troops had four killed and four wounded.

A party of men connected with the mountain robbers made their way into Callao on the 6th inst., and expected to capture one of the two castles that command the town and harbor. They were allowed to enter and then the gates were closed. They were all armed and money was found on them with which they expected to bribe the soldiers. Later dates state that the rebels are in the mountains. Pierola was assaulted on the seventh, and again on the eighth by government troops, and dispersed in all directions. Pierola, the leader, and his officers escaped. The battle was fought literally in the clouds, at an elevation of 5,000 feet above the level of the sea. The loss on either side is not given. Some 3,000 troops were engaged in the battle. President Pardo commanded one party in person.

The case was then tried before Judge Stals and several witnesses were examined and their testimony did not vary materially from the account of the affair given by ex-Gov. Warmoth himself and telegraphed yesterday. After hearing all the evidence, Judge Stals delivered the charge of murder not being proven against Warmoth, and discharged the prisoner.

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—The public prosecutor has anticipated Von Arnim in his appeal to the higher court.

The Manufacturing Interests of the South.

Whilst there is great prostration in the manufacturing establishments of the North and West, it is learned that a large share of prosperity is attending the manufacturing interest of some of the Southern States. The Tredegar works at Richmond, Virginia, which were badly crippled by the panic, are getting well under way, having recently received several large orders, one from Cuba being for a considerable number of railroad cars. As a consequence, the force of workmen at the Tredegar is being considerably augmented. Columbus, Georgia, is now running 35,000 cotton and 2,500 woolen spindles, and the capital employed being Southern. The mills in that city are running on full time, and the orders are constantly in excess of the products. In addition, Columbus has large foundries and machine shops in successful operation. The Scofield rolling-mills at Atlanta, Georgia, have just received an order for one thousand tons steel-capped rails for the Montgomery and Mobile Railroad, with assurance of another similar order, provided satisfaction is given. These are only a few of the many evidences of success attending manufacturing interests in the South.—Wil. Journal.

We see that a plan for a new manufacturing enterprise is about to be consumated in Savannah. The Advertiser gives, editorially, the purpose and scope of the proposition, which is a joint company for the manufacture of stoves, cooking and parlor, and ornamental gates, and other designs in iron, with a capital stock of $20,000, $10,000 of which has already been securred in the form of patterns, designs, tools, and the mechanical agencies necessary to the successful operations of the manufactory. The other ten thousand dollars will be required to carry on the business until it shall have been an assured success.

The enterprise is in the hands of experienced men, some of whom are Savannah mechanics. A master workman and capitalist of Albany, New York, is a stockholder. Savannah has already a paper mill and a large cotton factory.

This note of progress in a sister State is welcome to North Carolina readers. We, too, while perhaps not doing half what we could, are nevertheless making pleasing progress toward the development of our great resources. In the past three or four years much interest has been taken in the coal and iron mines of the central and southwestern counties, which must receive an increased impetus on the completion of the Carolina Central Railway and its connections.

A large foundry for fancy iron work would soon pay in this city, which is little behind Savannah in all that makes up a prosperous commercial emporium. Our cotton factory will commence operations in the early part of Spring.—Wilmington Star.

Ready Mixed Paint.

We call special attention to the excellent testimonials of Mr. C. P. Knight, in reference to Ready Made Paint. Not having used the paint, we can't speak from experience, but we feel sure it is to the interest of all our customers who desire painting to test the same. sep 25 3m

LIQUID ENAMEL PAINT.

BRADLEY'S PATENT

MADE FROM

Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil and Zinc, and Always Ready for Use.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prof. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.

W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders, Editors and Proprietors Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C., December, 26, 1873.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have used it and speak in the highest terms of it, after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D.

THE PLAINS, FAQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 5 buckets, 1 gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two coats; the last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

Always ready for use and easily applied, Sold by the gallon. One gallon covers twenty square yards, two coats.

Public attention is called to the fact that for every $100 of liabilities, it has $142 of assets. This unparallelled success should commend it to the people of this State.

Besides, it has deposited $150,000 for the exclusive benefit of policy-holders; and it now proposes to establish a local Board, and make loans on real estate security.

It takes insurance on all the approved plans, with but few if any restrictions.

MEDICINAL.

Thousands proclaim BITTERS the most wonderful vivifying principle that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many other with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove
